the youth of our community."

The Sports Complex was dedicated to South Amboy's beloved Major League Baseball player, the late Allie Clark, who played for the New York Yankees and other teams, and was always actively involved with the youth in the City of South Amboy. Allie passed away on April 2, 2012.

New improvements will include: two new baseball fields with LED lighting; renovation of one Little League/softball field, which will feature a warning track, clay infield resurfacing and irrigation; new bleachers, dugouts, fencing, foul poles, bases and scoreboards. In addition there will be new walkways, sidewalks and landscaping.

Mayor Fred Henry expressed his gratitude to the board of county commissioners for the "important funding." He also mentioned how critical the city's collaboration with the county board is to "bring projects like this to

Fireworks Canceled For July 4

By Steve Schmid

The news was predictable but still came as a disappointment. For the second consecutive year, South Amboy and Perth Amboy canceled their joint Independence Day fireworks display over Raritan Bay, due to the continuing COVID-19 pandemic. Barry Rosengarten is chairman of the non-profit group sponsoring the annual fireworks display with South and Perth Amboy, He said even though the pandemic has loosened its grip on New Jersey, this year is not the year to assemble people in close contact with each other. He added it is very disappointing to cancel it this year and last but health and safety has to be the top priority. The fireworks are normally launched around July 4 over Raritan Bay and attract thousands of people in South Amboy and Perth Amboy who turn out to see the dazzling colors from waterside parks.. Other events are usually scheduled to help celebrate the holiday. Rosengarten said he is looking forward to an incredible fireworks display next year. South Amboy, Perth Amboy join Woodbridge in canceling fireworks for the second straight year. Somerset County also announced the cancellation of its fireworks display. Hopefully our situation continues to improve and we can get back to normal in 2022.

Artsfest to be held on September 12, 2021 (Rain date September 19) has been a time for families to come to Broadway and enjoy a simple day filled with arts activities, hands-on crafts, entertainment, art exhibitions and vendor shopping as we gather with members of our community. Since we had to cancel the event last year we are beginning to plan for this September's special day! We need your help to create this year's celebration of friends and community. Please contact us if you would like to be a vendor, crafter, exhibitor, entertainer, workshop presenter, ambassador, coordinator or volunteer just for the day.

The arts enrich our lives... Art is a natural human behavior, art is a means to communicate, art is healing, art tells a story and art is meant to be a shared experience. This is the reason we look forward to seeing you!

So Amboy Receives NJ DOT Grant

The New Jersey Department of Transportation [NJ DOT] in partnership with the North Jersey Transportation Planning Authority [NJTPA] announced yesterday that the City of South Amboy has been awarded 1 million dollars from the federally funded Transportation Alternatives Set-Aside program. This program was designed to fund projects to improve safety for pedestrians and cyclists without impacting local property taxes.

The project South Amboy submitted under this program will provide for a new pedestrian/cyclist link between the existing New Jersey Transit Rail Station [NJ Transit] and the soon to be constructed Radford Ferry Terminal. Upon completion this project will also add to the City's existing waterfront walkway allowing more access to the shores of the Raritan Bay.

"As one of the original four designated NJ Transit Villages we are constantly

Irish Festival

The City of South Amboy in partnership with the South Amboy Parade committee will host an Irish Festival on Saturday, September 25th at the Middlesex County Raritan Bay Waterfront Park. The festival, which will begin at 2pm, promises to be an exciting and family friendly event and will include music, food and craft vendors, kid friendly activities, and will culminate in a fireworks display at dusk.

There will be live entertainment throughout the event including appearances by renowned Irish Musicians Willie Lynch and Andy Cooney as well as our very own DB Kelly Pipes and Drums.

Parade Co-Chairman Mickey Gross said, "Now that we are finally beginning to emerge from the pandemic, we are excited to hold this event in anticipation of the parade's return in March 2022".

The City of South Amboy has hosted an annual Saint Patrick's Parade for many years and the event has grown to one of the largest in New Jersey. "We felt that it was important to support the Parade Committee and gear up for our annual Parade in 2022" said Mayor Fred Henry. "I promise you that our dedicated Parade volunteers and our City employees will ensure that this is an event to remember".

South Amboy is conveniently located at the nexus of Route 9 & 35 and is home to a convenient NJ Transit rail station that is only a short walk to the Waterfront Park. Rain date for the event is September 26th.

seeking ways to improve access to our transit facilities while maintaining a safe, walkable community" said Mayor Fred Henry. "This funding will provide another critical link in our efforts to reduce vehicle traffic and provide safe and convenient transportation alternatives for our residents and local commuters".

Ultimately the City plans to construct one final section of the waterfront walkway providing over 1 1/2 miles of interconnected pedestrian/cyclist links serving its transit facilities, the downtown, and the bayfront area.

Sorry Kevin!
 It was brought to our attention that through the years, I have somehow missed the name in my Yearbook Column of one of my very good friends from St. Mary's HS Class of '71, Kevin O'Connor. Kevin is a great guy who played sports for the Eagles, and is a talented musician/singer/songwriter. Again, my apologies Kevin for this oversight!

The Miraculous Prayer
 Dear Heart of Jesus, in the past I have asked for many favors. This time I ask you this my special one (mention favor). Take it, Dear Jesus, and place it within your own broken heart, where your Father sees it. Then, in His merciful eyes, it will become your favor, not mine. Amen. (Say this prayer for 3 days, promise publication and your favor will be granted. Never known to fail.) -C.P.

A PRAYER FOR HEALING
 Lord, you invited all who are burdened to come to You. Allow your healing hand to heal me. Touch my soul with Your compassion for others. Touch my heart with Your courage and infinite love for all. Touch my mind with Your wisdom, that my mouth may always proclaim Your praise. Teach me to reach out to You in my need. Help me to lead others to You by my example. Most loving heart of Jesus, bring me health in my body and spirit so that I may serve You with all my strength. Touch gently with this life that you have created. Amen -C.P.

Institution Celebrates 54th Commencement, But First As Middlesex College

It was a historic occasion for Middlesex College: Thursday, May 20 saw the largest class in its history graduate, and the first under its new name, Middlesex College.

Formerly known as Middlesex County College, the two-year institution changed its name in January, and this is the first class whose diplomas will use the new term.

The record number of graduates – 1871 – eclipses the previous record of 1,592 in 2020. The ceremony was held virtually because of the pandemic. Richa Nayak (North Brunswick), who is double majoring in Computer Science and Mathematics, was the valedictorian and gave the class welcome. She is planning to transfer to Rutgers University and major in Computer Science.

Other speakers included Ronald G. Rios, the Middlesex County commissioner director, who told the class they are vital to the prospects of the County. Dorothy K. Power, chairman of the College Board of Trustees, congratulated the graduates for their accomplishments. “This is a great day for you – where you are, what you have accomplished, and what a wonderful new future is ahead, known or unknown,” she said.

College President Mark McCormick said that despite facing difficult obstacles, the class of 2021 persevered.

“I want to acknowledge that this past year has been extremely challenging for you and for all of us who work at the College as everyone continues to be affected by the COVID-19 pandemic,” he said. “My hat is off to each one of you for your courage, resilience, and determination.

We would of course prefer to be celebrating with you in person. I miss seeing all of your smiling faces as I deliver these remarks. I hope that as you look back on your time at Middlesex College, you are able to see beyond what you may be missing right now and remember all that you have experienced and learned. This pandemic will pass, but what you have gained from your time at Middlesex College will be with you for life.”

Sixteen graduates were honored with the Chambers Award winners for attaining the highest point average. Tarek Ahmed of Parlin was one of the proud recipients. Congratulations Tarek!

Jammin for Jaclyn

Jammin for Jaclyn, the New Jersey based benefit for those fighting cancer, will have its 8th annual event virtually this year on Facebook LIVE, June 12th from 7-10:30pm EST. The livestream will consist of 8 talented musicians performing from the safety of their homes, as well as a 50/50 drawing at the end of the night. The funds raised by this year’s event will be supporting local business owner, Brian Da Silva, who is currently battling Pancreatic Cancer. This family run benefit in a small New Jersey town came to last over seven years and raised over $185,000 for 8 families in their ongoing fights with cancer. The organization was originally established for local New Jersey resident, Jaclyn Squillace, who was diagnosed with Stage 3 Breast Cancer while five months pregnant in 2014. Her brother, Michael Squillace, a professional multi-instrumentalist, along with her parents and co-founders, Denise and Ron Morgan, created the annual event in order to raise funds for Jaclyn's many surgeries and treatments, but also to lift her spirits. As she went in and out of remission for several years, they continued to run the event for others fighting cancer in the community. Though Jaclyn passed in 2018, they continue to run the event in her name. Jack McKeon And Brother Bill McKeon Visit South Amboy

By Tom Burkard

South Amboy natives, favorite sons, and baseball legends, Jack McKeon and his brother Bill McKeon returned to "The Pleasant Little City" for the first time in over a year, since the Pandemic started, and on runs and strikeouts than other important and fundamental aspects of the game. It's definitely a different type of game today, especially with all the analysts and analytics."

Jack is presently an Assistant to the

May 6th visited their sister Marge McKeon Gorczyca. Some family and friends, who were at Marge's home to greet the world-renowned and beloved baseball men, were thrilled to see them, and once again renew old friendships, in addition to reminiscing about the good old days in South Amboy, and of course, baseball.

Although it was a relaxing "reunion," I had the opportunity to chat with my old friends, and ask them a few questions. When asked what he thought about baseball today, Jack said, "The game of baseball has changed, and I'm not happy with some changes, even though many people think the changes have made progress. It seems there is an emphasis on analytics these days, and the analysts pay more attention to home

Washington Nationals GM Mike Rizzo, but says, "It's been tough getting out and around with the Pandemic, so it keeps you from doing your traveling and more." Residing in North Carolina, Jack was working out everyday and staying in shape for many years at the YMCA, but since last year the facility has been closed, so he said he has a treadmill at home for exercise.

We also talked about many of his players, coaches and others from his 2003

Florida Marlins World Championship team that defied all odds and shocked the world by defeating the powerful New York Yankees.

"Winning the World Series in 2003 was without a doubt my proudest moment in my entire baseball career, he said. He also said that it was "A big thrill to manage the National League All-Stars in the '04 All-Star Game." Jack mentioned that he is very happy about the success of future Hall-of-Famer Miguel Cabrera, now with the Detroit Tigers, who is still playing and having a great year.

Cabrera got his start as a rookie in '03 with the Marlins. McKeon mentioned that he keeps in touch with Hall-of-Famer Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez, Juan Pierre, Dontrelle Willis, Josh Beckett, Carl Pavano, and Derek Lee, as well as Reggie Sanders, who he managed with the Cincinnati Reds.

When asked if players like Barry Bonds, Mark McGwire, Roger Clemens, Rafael Palmeiro and others who were accused of using steroids would ever be enshrined in the Baseball Hall-of-Fame, he said, "I think they will eventually let them in." Bonds, who as a player became the All-Time Home Run King, was not overly popular with the media and many fans, served as a hitting instructor in Spring Training for McKeon and the Marlins. Jack said that, "Bonds was one of the best all-around players I ever saw in my lifetime. He was a pleasure to work with when he was a hitting coach for me at Spring Training in Florida."

It was the first time I got to visit with Jack in about 5 years, and as always, it was a most enjoyable and interesting experience, as we renewed our longtime friendship, that inspired me to write a book about his life story in 2004, titled Jack McKeon: Baseball, Cigars & Saint Theresa. There were two other books written about Jack through the years, by high-profile writers and I was honored and flattered that he personally told me that, "Your book is the most complete outstanding trades and acquisitions, while picking up the now famous nickname, "Trader Jack"...

Bill "Biff" McKeon, who resides in Indiana has been involved in baseball for almost his entire life, and is currently in his 10th year as a broadcaster for the Evansville Otters team that plays in the Can-Am League. A standout catcher, who could hit with authority, he was signed in 1951 by the Boston

Braves organization, after playing for the South Amboy All-Stars in the AAABA National Tournament at Johnstown, PA. (Boston later became the Milwaukee Braves, and is currently the Atlanta Braves). The future was looking bright for Bill until he suffered a rotator cuff injury in '56 while playing for Evansville, Indiana in the Three I League. He decided to retire during Spring Training of 1958, and his 5-year minor league career totals showed that he was moving towards his big league goal. He finished with a solid .289 lifetime batting average, with 14 home runs and 115 RBI. His tremendous love and dedication to the game of baseball has always kept him involved, as he has served in many different capacities including: coach, manager, scout for many Major League Teams (MLB) teams; Philadelphia, Los Angeles Angels, Dodgers, Kansas City/Oakland A's, Kansas City Royals, San Diego Padres. When he scouted for the Kansas City A's in the 1960's, he signed Sayreville standout Charlie Lynch to a contract. During his most successful, interesting, and diversified life, "Biff" was in the educational field for many years, as an administrator at

Madison Twp. HS, and later at Cedar Ridge, where he was Athletic Director/Varsity Baseball Coach at the old Cedar Ridge High School in Old Bridge. He proudly stated that "I was the varsity baseball coach at Madison Twp. When the school won its first game in history, we defeated Hoffman HS, who was coached by John Zdanewicz, 3-2."

Jack Facts:

He is the only manager in professional baseball history to have over 1,000 victories in the minor leagues (1,146-1,123, .505) and also MLB (1,051-990, .515), Hall-of-Fame credentials...Jack has managed 5 MLB teams: Kansas City 1973-75; Oakland 1977-78; San Diego 1988-90; Cincinnati 1997-2000; Florida 2003-05, and also 2011... He was GM of the San Diego Padres from 1980-1990, and rebuilt the team through

Middlesex College Displays New Logo and Look

Middlesex College unveiled its new look, showcasing its sharp new logo, brand and name at a flag-raising ceremony on May 13. The College, which was known as Middlesex County College, is now Middlesex College.

Shanice Pearson, whose photo adorns one of the banners that traverse the campus, spoke at the flag raising and said she is thrilled that Middlesex County College changed its name to Middlesex College, and that her diploma will sport the new term.

"I love the new look," she said. "And not only because I'm on one of the banners. It is bright and fresh and appealing. I think it represents the experience students have at the College. For me, this experience has truly been a rewarding one. Not only have I met some amazing people along the way, but I've also learned valuable life lessons that I will take with me along my journey as I enter my field. And by this time one week from today, I will be very proud to call myself a Middlesex College alumna."

The program also included speeches by the College president, Mark McCormick, and the Middlesex County Commissioner Director Ronald G. Rios.

"Though it has never strayed from its mission to make access to higher education and lifelong learning a reality for our County's diverse population, the College has evolved throughout the decades," Commissioner Director Rios said. "That evolution is evident when looking at the campus and how it has expanded over the years, but even more so when considering the breadth of academic, professional, and personal enrichment programs offered, and the innovative ways in which the College supports students and alumni."

"Now, some may look at these new signs and see merely signs with the College's updated name. But they are so much more than that. They are the visual representation of this next step in the journey and evolution of Middlesex College. They reflect the College's ongoing commitment to the campus community, and to the entire Middlesex County community. And they are one of the first things students, faculty, staff and the community will see when visiting – or even passing by – this beautiful campus here in the heart of Middlesex County."

Dr. McCormick touted the College's high quality education that produces graduates who transfer to and thrive at institutions such as Rutgers University, Kean University, the New Jersey Institute of Technology, The College of New Jersey and Princeton University.

"Our transfer partners report that Middlesex College graduates perform better than students who start at the four-year institution in terms of grade point average and time to completion of a bachelor's degree," he said. "Despite such amazing outcomes for our students, there are many in our community who remain unaware of what Middlesex College has to offer. With our new name and rebranding, we aim to spread the word about all that Middlesex College has to offer and to help dispel the stigma about attending a community college."

Dr. McCormick also recognized Larry Thoms, an alumnus who – as a student in the late 1960s – drew the Colt that was used as the background for the first athletic logo, which lasted for the past 50 years.

Upon arrival firefighters found a fully involved shed fire with flames burning two houses on either side. Firefighters quickly extinguished the fire in all structures. One minor injury was reported. The Smoke Column

By Ex-Chief Richard Kosmoski, MS

May is "Wildland Fire Awareness Month." Usually by this time of the year in our area the trees are starting to blossom and get their leaves and the grasses are getting green. This means that there is more moisture content in the environment which helps to reduce the fire load. When there is more humidity in the atmosphere, including plants and trees, it makes it much more difficult for these materials to ignite and contribute to a large fire. In late March and throughout April, before the growing season gets underway, the debris left-over from last year's growing season is lying dead on the ground in the fields and woods. This is prime material for a fire to develop and spread. Most large and out-of-control wildland fires occur when the fuel is dried out. There must also be other factors in place: no significant amount of rainfall in a while; humidity is extremely low; gusty winds are in effect; and the temperatures are on the increase. Each one of these factors contribute to the drying out of the fuel. A source of ignition at any other time may not be sufficient to start a fire BUT under these conditions it is primed for disaster.

A large wildland fire broke out on March 14th of this year. It occurred on the Lakewood/Toms River border. It grew with such intensity that many homes were immediately threatened. People were evacuated from their homes in the surrounding areas. For those residents, it was a harrowing experience. The fire was so intense that the Garden State Parkway had to be shut down from Exit 83 to Exit 90 for most of the afternoon and evening. The gusty winds literally blew the fire across the GSP even causing the wooded medium separating the northbound lanes from the southbound lanes to ignite. It was impossible to see the roadway from all the smoke billowing from the fire. The dryness of the area was caused by the lack of rainfall for 12 days before the fire. This was a major contributing factor to the fire. Over 170 acres were burned along with the total devastation of a commercial building and less damage to sheds and garages in the residential areas. Due to the actions of many firefighters, no homes were severely damaged by this fire. Mutual aid from neighboring fire departments were called to assist the local fire department along with assistance from the New Jersey Forest Fire Service. The two prime seasons for wildland fires to occur are in the early spring and again in the fall when the leaves dry out and fall to the ground as perpetual fuel. Any dry, windy day in the fall came to have the same effect on a wildland fire as in the spring.

We have been lucky in our local communities in recent years because we have not had any major wildland fires. This is due largely because our wooded areas have been developed and no longer provide the ammunition for a major wildland fire. Years ago, the meadows along our waterfronts would ignite and burn for hours on end. Unfortunately, many of these fires were left to burn themselves out because it was impossible to drive fire apparatus over the marshy areas. Firefighters would assemble near structures and provide protection if the fire got near them. After these fires burned themselves out, within days new sprouts would emerge from the marsh and grow all over again. I guess nature has a way of renewing herself just as the meadows regenerate after a fire, so do the forests on our west coast. This process has been evolving for millions of years and hopefully will continue rejuvenating our climate and our earth for many more.

As we celebrate this Memorial Day, let us not forget the true meaning for the day. It is the day that is set aside to remember our fallen heroes, those who have died while fighting for the freedoms we enjoy each-and-every day of our lives here in America. Take just a moment and reflect on the many reasons that you can go about doing just about anything you want to do. This is called FREEDOM! People have died for that cause so that you and the many other people throughout the free world can live without being suppressed.

On Memorial Day we also remember our local heroes, those first responders who have devoted their lives responding to other people's emergencies and have answered their final alarm. Since Memorial Day 2020 we have lost the following firefighters from the South Amboy Fire Department:

- Wayne Olsen Protection Engine Co.
- John T. O'Leary Protection Engine Co.
- Michael Coman Ex-Chief of the Department
- Burk Lambertson Independence Engine & Hose
- Gary Gaytas Ex-Chief of the Department
- Kevin Nemeth Enterprise Hook & Ladder
- Joseph Tarallo Progressive Fire Co.
- Rich Questa Mechanicsville Hose Co.
- Mike Havlush Protection Engine Co.

Since last Memorial Day, the Sayreville Fire Department did not have a firefighter answer his final alarm and for this we thank God.

Songs To The Blessed Mother

By Tom Burkard

If you happened to attend a Parochial/Catholic school back in the 1960's, you probably remember the good sisters who taught you that May is the month of Mary, the Blessed Mother of Our Lord Jesus Christ. The crowning of a statue of Mary, with a crown made of real flowers, was an honor and tribute to her, and a daily event at St. Mary's Grammar School during the entire month. When the crowner was about to place the crown upon Mary's head, the sister or teacher would lead the class in singing "Oh Mary We Crown Thee," and if you were there back then, the rest of the words to the song are probably going through your head right now..."with blossoms today, queen of the angels, queen of the May....In addition, a few other popular songs to our Blessed Mother back then were, "Hail Holy Queen Enthroned Above," "Immaculate Mary," "Ave Maria," and "Hail Mary, Gentle Woman."

Dennis and Maryanne have filmed a new Test Kitchen Episode where they share easy summer picnic recipes. Dennis shows us how to make a simple and refreshing bean salad while Maryanne whips up a festive no-bake flag cake. Watch the latest video on the Dowdell YouTube channel or find the link at dowdell.org.

Join us this month for Celebrity Storytime down at the Waterfront Park Gazebo! Our first outdoor Storytime will be held on Tuesday, June 22 (rain date June 29) from 11 am to 12:30 pm in the gazebo at the Waterfront Park. South Amboy's very own Zusette Dato, Deputy County Clerk, will be joining Ms. Maryanne for a family fun event! Seating under the pavilion is limited (but don't worry, there is plenty of room on the grass surrounding the gazebo!) We ask that you bring a beach towel to sit on and make social distancing easy! Future Storytime dates: Tuesday, July 13, (rain date July 20) featuring Glenn Skarzynski, South Amboy

Business Administrator, and Tuesday, August 10, (rain date August 17) featuring Suzanne Ryan as Mother Goose!

Stop by the library from June 1- 11 to pick up a Superhero Father's Day take-home craft! Have your child make a super sweet card for the special Father (figure) in his or her life. The craft is recommended for ages 0-12 while supplies last.

Dowdell Library is excited to share online virtual health programs in collaboration with Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital and RWJ Barnabas Health. June will feature sessions on keeping your skin healthy, chair yoga and guided meditation classes. If you are interested in these online events, please register by emailing Kathleen Johnson at kathleen.johnson@rwjbh.org.

Parents celebrate World Oceans Day with your child, and you can have a chance to win a new picture book. South Amboy Gavs Perfect In CJ Group I

By Tom Burkard

2006-Central Jersey Group 1 Champions- The South Amboy Governors captured the CJ title by beating Keansburg 8-0. Joe Bartlinski, South Amboy High's senior pitching sensation, fired the first perfect game in the history of South Amboy high schools, as he led the Gavs to an 8-0 triumph over Keansburg in the Central Jersey Group I championship game! The Purple & Gold, in winning the crown for the first time since 1987, also received a huge offensive game from superstar, and county batting champion, junior Brian Seres, who blasted two no-doubt about-it home runs, the first, a grand slam in the second inning, and also a 3-run shot in the fourth, accounting for an incredible 7 RBI!

In the bottom of the fourth inning with South Amboy holding an 8-0 lead, right after Seres' second homer, the weather gods started playing a game of their own.

There was lightning and a loud roar of thunder, so the umpires halted play for the mandatory 30 minutes to see if the weather improved. After 20 minutes, players and fans were getting anxious to resume play, but another thunder boom was heard, and the umpires had to extend the wait for another half hour. At this point, many fans were saying that they hoped the game would resume and not be called before it was official, so Seres' 2 homers and 7 RBI would not be wasted. Only one fan realized at the time that Bartlinski was working on a perfect game. Fortunately, the baseball gods convinced the weather gods to turn their frowns to smiles, and hold off for the completion of the most PERFECT game in high school baseball history in South Amboy.

South Amboy also received plenty of support from Joe Tarallo, who made two outstanding catches in center field to save Bartlinski's masterpiece. In the fourth, he was running at top speed to make a sensational catch on a drive to the fence in centerfield. He also came charging in to rob a Keansburg player of a bloop hit in the sixth inning. Tarallo turned in a fine 3-for-4 game with 2 runs scored. Jared Mundy stroked 2 hits and stole a base, and Billy Wanko hit the ball hard, and was 2-for-3 with an RBI.

Kathleen Morgan Named Middlesex College Alumna of the Year

Kathleen Morgan has taught over 365 classes to more than 9,000 students. She has won 12 national awards, and 18 state and regional awards for leadership and work in the health sciences and related disciplines. She is the author of 26 articles, developed more than 30 Cooperative Education publications, and has led numerous professional associations.

She was nominated for the Alumni award by Mary-Pat Maciolek, chair of the Hospitality, Culinary Arts, and Dietetics Department at Middlesex College.

"Any conversation with Kathleen reveals that without the education and encouragement she received at Middlesex College, she would not be where she is today," Dr. Maciolek said. "Her career is a testament to the mission, vision, and values of the College, for it remains an integral part of who Kathleen is, and what she has accomplished."

Indeed. Dr. Morgan has accomplished a great deal, including promoting good nutrition in her kids. She's afraid, however, that lesson may not have fully stuck.

"When my oldest went off to college, he said, 'You're not going to know what I eat!,'" she said with a laugh.

Avoid Injury While Enjoying Golf

Injuries can be prevented or minimized with proper preparation. Following are some simple steps to take to avoid injury and enjoy golf to its fullest:

1. Ask your Chiropractor about a conditioning program to strengthen and stretch the muscles used in the golf swing.
2. Use the expertise of your local golf pro. He can ensure that your swing is mechanically correct. Improper swing mechanics are the most common cause of golf injuries.
3. Make sure your clubs fit your body. Clubs are like shoes; if you don't buy the right size your body will suffer the consequences.
4. If you walk the course rather than ride, don't carry your golf bag. Carrying a bag, even the lightweight styles; add extra strain on your body. Use a pull-cart. Those golfers with back problems might try pushing the cart rather than pulling it, this will reduce the rotational strain on your lower back.
5. Don't forget the simple things such as bending your knees to pick up the golf ball.
6. If you injure yourself, stop playing and consult your Chiropractor as soon as possible.
7. Have fun! Too many golfers take the game too seriously. Remember, the game is supposed to relieve stress, not create it.

Fishing Flashes

By Teo "Weebles" Weber

Salt Water
The big news is that the Bluefish have arrived. There were a few south of us, but Bluefish and some big ones were caught in the surf. Then they were over the back bay and ocean areas. Now they are all over Raritan Bay. I saw several 3 to 5 pound Blues caught at Cliffwood Beach. Striped Bass is now the fish to go after. Shore fishing has gotten better so much so that it has come to the attention of the game wardens. I saw pictures of a big bust that they made at Cheesquake Creek where they nabbed several people keeping shorts and fishing over the limit. They had at least 15 Bass. Their Tackle was confiscated and tickets were issued. So, fisherman beware, you could be next if you do not heed the law! Surf fishing is mostly Striped Bass and Bluefish. At LBI there are also a few Kingfish and a few Black Drum. To add some variety even a few out of season Fluke are being caught. Party boat fishing is still Blackfish and Ling. The season on Blackfish will end but Seabass will take up the slack when the season opens along with Fluke.

Fresh Water
The Shad run is in full swing in the Delaware River. Trout fishing is also good. My wife and I went fishing on the Pequest River at the end of April and we landed 3 Trout. They were rising all over but hard to catch. A week later we tried at the North Branch at Far Hills for an hour or two but did nothing. We returned to the Pequest in early May in the afternoon. All I did was miss and lose anything I hooked. She caught her limit of 6 with 2 big Rainbows at 18 inches. We again went to the same spot 2 weeks later and both limited out with nice Rainbow Trout with 2 large fish at 15 and 18 inches.

ST. JUDE
May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude, helper of the hopeless, pray us. Say this prayer nine times a day for nine days. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised. Thank You St. Jude. -R.S., A.S., H.S., L.S., L.P., EP.

The New Norm for Passing Time

By Elaine Holton Scott

Okay, let's try to figure this out. First, let's keep the name of the "Provider" private, not to protect the innocent but to protect me from the guilty. In the 1980's, the "Provider" company got permission from our government to dig their cables below ground on private property. At that time, I was living on Embroidery Street in the Green Acres Development off Washington Road and watched as they dug the holes into my grass covered lawn to run their cable under my driveway. At that time, I, as well as so many other TV viewers, had no intention whatsoever to pay for something we had been getting for free for 30 plus years. Raised by the survivors of the Great Depression, from the moment of our birth, we had grown up having the value of every single penny ingrained into our psyches. "Shut the light off and stop wasting electricity!"; "Money doesn't grow on trees!"; What...do you think we're made of money?!"; Clean your plate! "Kids in the world are starving" are just a few of the many "lessons" most of us had learned throughout our formative years. Later, our ears would hear the same words coming from our own mouths. So, we were "hard nuts to crack" when it came to spending "good money" when none needed to be spent. Ah, but that doesn't mean we didn't spend money, as most of us had spent lots of it. The old axioms we continued to spout should have included another one..."Do as I say, not as I do." Actually, all of us who had been formed subliminally by the commercials on television were "infected" with the "I Want Syndrome." Our children, then, grew up with the "I Want Even More Syndrome," and that included more television channels...but most of all, MTV, which clinched the deal.

My first commercial-free cable bill was around 10 bucks and it included not only MTV but also a ton of commercials which increased faster than breeding rabbits. Within a few months, my cable bill also increased to a few cents short of 11 bucks. Through the ensuing years, the bills for "Providers" never stopped getting larger and larger until, when you think about it, they are becoming so high now they seem obscene. As for free television viewing, it has long been put into the same category as rotary phones, cassette tapes, and movie rental businesses.

My "Provider" bill has recently increased again. Greed for more profit comes at a very bad time for many Americans. For over a year, we have existed in a Pandemic environment. Thousands and thousands of people have died...so many people have lost their jobs, and so many people, sadly including our youth, are committing suicide. Yet, all necessities, like food and fuel, have been drastically increasing in cost. Don't you think this is super bad timing for "Providers" to jump on the bandwagon and charge us more??? Lately, they also have us paying for channels in the "packages" we had chosen, then, have those same channels offer new shows for extra money??? These new channels within channels all have a + sign after them. That + sign to the Provider means more shows, to viewers it also means more money equating to a higher Provider bill.

During this very long and seemingly far from over Pandemic, more people have been turning to their television sets from boredom and loneliness than ever before. Turning on the TV set upon awakening has become standard to many of us...a gesture much like welcoming an old friend into the house to keep us company to combat the silence. Not able to go see a new movie playing in theaters, it's not surprising to know movie rental bills have increased drastically, thereby adding to an already bloated Provider bill. Maybe, just maybe, our bills for at-home "entertainment" would be worth it if we were given more shows which "entertain" instead of an unending list of crappy, inappropriate shows which not only don't entertain, many of them are extremely offensive in their total lack of morality. So, as life struggles to inch its way to a "new norm," and we continue being careful of infecting or getting infected by Covid-19 (unfortunately the vaccines aren't 100% effective), we can always ease our boredom by watching old, mostly black and white TV shows to pass the time...you know, those old television shows we used to watch for free in that now long ago pre-Provider time of life.

Novena Prayer to St. Anthony of Padua

O Holy St. Anthony, gentlest of Saints, your love for God and charity for His creatures, made you worthy, when on earth, to possess miraculous powers. Miracles waited on your word, which you were ever ready to speak for those in trouble or anxiety. Encouraged by this thought, I import you to obtain for me (request). The answer to my prayer may require a miracle. Even so, you are the Saint of Miracles. O gentle and loving St. Anthony, whose heart was ever full of human sympathy, whisper my petition into the ears of Sweet Infant Jesus, who loved to be folded in your arms; and the gratitude of my heart will ever be yours. Amen. Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be. -M.S. & S.S.-N.P.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED MOTHER

(Never known to fail) Oh, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me, herein you are my mother. Oh, Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth! I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, show me herein you are my mother. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Thank you. -S.P.

LETTERS

Letter to the Editor,

I was pleased to see this flag photo in your paper. I passed it daily coming and going to school and other areas in South Amboy such as Foodtown, Frog Hollow or anywhere else I may have visited. It was located on the underpass part of a bridge that spanned Rt. 35 over Bordentown Ave. To me it was an iconic part of my childhood. I wish it was still a part of the underpass. It is important to state that this beautiful drawing was never vandalized.

Stockton University and Middlesex College Sign Transfer Partnership Agreement

Stockton University has signed a dual admission and transfer partnership agreement with Middlesex College that will help students make a smooth transition from the two-year college to Stockton's bachelor's degree program.

The five-year agreement strengthens the relationship between Stockton and Middlesex College by offering multiple opportunities for students to seamlessly pursue associate and bachelor's degrees at the two institutions of higher education.

Stockton President Harvey Kesselman said the agreement will give students access to Stockton University services while they attend Middlesex College, and provide a smooth pathway to Stockton as juniors after they earn their associate degree.

"More than 300 students from Middlesex County already attend Stockton," Dr. Kesselman said. "This program will give even more students the confidence of knowing they are on the path to a four-year college degree."

Stockton Chief Enrollment Management Officer Robert Heinrich said the Transfer Pathways program gives students dual admission options, including access to Stockton University services while they attend Middlesex College.

"If a student applies to Stockton but is not initially accepted as a freshman, through the Transfer Pathways program we offer the opportunity for conditional acceptance if they start at Middlesex College," Heinrich said. "If students are already enrolled at Middlesex, they can apply for conditional acceptance at Stockton while they work toward their associate degree."

Linda Scherr, vice president for academic affairs at Middlesex College, said she was very pleased about the initiative.

"We are proud to partner with Stockton University to provide another excellent pathway for Middlesex College graduates to earn a bachelor's degree from one of the top public universities in the Northeast," she said.

Middlesex College President Mark McCormick agreed. "Middlesex College is very pleased to partner with Stockton University to provide expanded transfer opportunities for our graduates," he said. "Our institutions share the same values – offering quality higher education at an affordable cost in a student-centered environment of exceptional teaching and learning."

The terms of the agreement include: Students who are denied direct admission to Stockton can receive conditional dual admission in partnership with Middlesex College. Students will attend classes at Middlesex College but have access to campus housing, activities and student groups at Stockton and receive a special Stockton Identification card through its Transfer Pathways program.

Students who successfully complete their associate degree at Middlesex College can automatically transfer to Stockton with junior standing to complete their bachelor's degree. Application fees to Stockton will be waived for eligible students.

Students who complete at least 36 credits at Middlesex College, and a total of 64 credits between the county college and the four-year institution, are eligible to receive a retroactive associate degree from Middlesex College. Stockton and Middlesex College will co-host "reverse transfer" information sessions for students.

Stockton and Middlesex College will develop specific program-to-program articulation agreements for high-demand majors to facilitate the quality and ease of transfer.

Students will receive joint advising from both institutions and a Stockton advisor will have office space and a regular schedule at Middlesex College.

T's a life of suffering
Embrace it with your soul
Through our hectic shuffling
Oh, how it takes its toll...
But even in the worst of times
We've much to be thankful for
In sight of love,
my remedy of rhymes
And look up...
there's something more.

PRAYER TO ST. ANTHONY

O holy St. Anthony, reach down from heaven and take hold of my hand. Assure me that I am not alone. You are known to possess miraculous powers and to be ever ready to speak for those in trouble. Loving and gentle St. Anthony, reach down from heaven I implore you and assist me in my hour of need. Obtain for me (mention request here). What is Memorial Day

Memorial Day, which was originally called Decoration Day, is a day of remembrance in honor of America's war dead. Decoration Day was officially proclaimed on May 5, 1866 by General John Logan, National Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. It was first observed on May 30, 1868. May 30th was chosen specifically because it was not on the anniversary of a major battle. Federal law recognized the holiday as "Memorial Day" in 1967. In 1971, a law was passed moving the date from May 30 to the last Monday in May.
